"The Advertising Educational Foundation has had a very successful six-year-plus partnership with Animus Rex, who created and continues to develop, enhance and maintain www.aef.com, the Web site of the Advertising Educational Foundation. The Animus Rex staff is creative, thoughtful and responsive. They not only look for a "better" resolution to a situation, they search for the "best" resolution. The AEF and Animus Rex will continue to work together to make aef.com the best it can be."
